$10,750 VERDICT GIVEN MARQUARDT

Jury Awards Big Sum After Being Out Four Hours
on Gas & Electric Company Case

DEFENDANT WILL FIGHT HARD

Wants Verdict Set Aside
and Answers Changed,
while Other Side Asks Judgment

Henry Marquardt, suing the La Crosse Gas & Electric company for $40,000 damages for injuries sustained in an explosion at the gas plant alleged to have rendered the plaintiff helpless, was last night awarded a special verdict with $10,750 damages at 9:30, after the jury has been out since 5:20.

Attorneys for the defendant company at once filed notice that motion would be made to have several of the answers changed and the verdict set aside. The attorneys for the plaintiff also served notice that they would move for a judgment on the verdict. The defendant company is liable for all over $5,000 being insured for that sum with an indemnity company.

Attorneys Morris and Hartwell and Frank Winter represented Marquardt; and the Gas & Electric company was represented by Woodward and Lees and McConnell and Schweizer.

The Special Verdict
Following is the special verdict of the jury:

"We, the jury, empaneled and sworn to try the issues in the above entitled action, for our special verdict make answers to the questions submitted as follows:

"Was the gas escaping in defendant's purifying house ignited and exploded by a spark from the electric light inside said house at the time of plaintiff's said injury? "Yes."

"Was the electric lighting equipment of the defendant's gas purifying house on May 29, 1906, reasonably safe for the use of the plaintiff in performing his duties in defendant's employment? "No."

"If you answer question No. 2 no, then was the plaintiff's said injury the natural and probable consequence of such lack of reasonable safety? "Yes."

"If you answer question 2, no, then ought the defendant to have foreseen before plaintiff's said injury that such lack of reasonable safety might probably result in personal injury to an employee? "Yes."

"Did plaintiff by any lack of ordinary care on his part proximately contribute to produce his said injury? "No."

"Did the defendant within one year after plaintiff's said injury state or represent to the plaintiff in substance that the plaintiff did not need to serve on defendant any notice of his injury or other legal papers relating to it, in order to preserve his rights against defendant? "Yes."

"Did the defendant within one year after plaintiff's said injury state or represent to the plaintiff in substance that an insurance company was bound to pay the plaintiff's damages arising from said injury and that defendant would on plaintiff's behalf enforce such obligation? "Yes."

"If you answer 'yes' either to question No. 6 or question No. 7 or to both, then did the plaintiff have reasonable cause to believe from such statements or representations found to have been made, that he was thereby excused from serving a notice of injury or beginning an action for damages within said year in order to preserve his rights against defendant? "Yes."

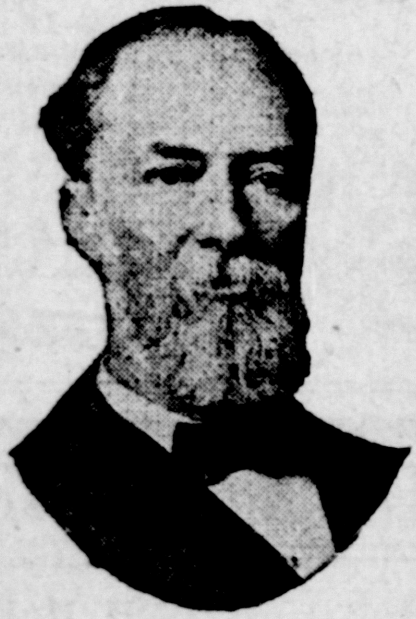

"Was the plaintiff's failure to serve any notice of said injury and failure to begin such action within a year from May 29, 1906, caused by his reliance upon said statements and representations? "Yes."

BOUGHT A TITLE TO WOO A RICH GIRL

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Admitting that he is not a French marquis, although claiming he purchased the title of Viscount d'Ollone and Marquis de Faunconcourt, under which he three days ago married Miss Ada Durlacher, daughter of a rich manufacturer here, a young Frenchman today left the city, leaving his bride behind. Although greatly upset by the discovery that her husband's claims were unfounded, the young woman today denied there had been a permanent separation, and insisted her husband would return later.

"I know where he is," she declared, "and it is my suggestion that he has gone away, as he would have to face a storm of criticism had he remained here. He will come back when I send for him."

PARIS STARTLED BY NEW CONFESSION

Man in Court at Trial of Madame Steinhell
States He Did
the Murders

PARIS, Nov. 4.—Given permission to make a statement to the court during the trial of Mme. Marguerite Steinhell for the murder of her husband, Adolphe Steinhell, and Mme. Japy, today, Jean Lefebvre astounded the judges and the entire court into a scene of wild confusion by calmly stating that he had planned and executed the murders and that Mme. Steinhell was innocent.

Lefebvre obtained permission to speak through M. Aubin, attorney for Mme. Steinhell. The latter received a letter from Lefebvre asking that he be allowed to interrupt the case and make a statement. When the judges gave the permission he arose and made the confession.

Mme. Steinhell, the terrible ordeal of examination interrupted, sat breathless while the man made his admission. She scarcely appeared alive as he concluded, and she collapsed in her chair.

Lefebvre, a Mere Youth
Lefebvre, pale, anemic and apparently about 20 years old, dramatically declared that the beautiful woman who crouched in the witness chair, was innocent and said his motive for the killing was robbery.

Lefebvre, standing before the astounded judges of the assizes, related that he disguised himself as a red haired woman, and obtained entrance to the Steinhell home with a companion, a Pole. The judges ordered him searched and in his pocket was found a woman's wig of red hair.

"With this wig on my head," dispassionately declared Lefebvre, "I met my companion behind the Pantheon at midnight the night the murder was committed. I donned the clothing of a woman and together we proceeded to the Steinhell house in the Impasse Ronan. We murdered Steinhell and we killed Mme. Japy. Mme. Steinhell is innocent."

A buzz of astonishment ran through the room.

Woman Faints in Court
The pale faced woman who since yesterday noon had been fighting with every means at her command the merciless badgering of President of the Court de Valles, fell forward in her chair, striving vainly to keep her composure. Attendants rushed to her and she was carried to an ante-room. It took several minutes to arouse her.

Meantime Lefebvre facing the court and spectators from behind the little rail where he had taken his position to make the confession, proceeded to tell how the killing had been accomplished.

"Where is your accomplice?" thundered de Valles, as he concluded. "He was a Pole and he has been dead for some time," replied Lefebvre, calmly.

The judge ordered Lefebvre locked up.

The Trial Continues
Mme. Steinhell was revived and brought back to the court room. Her appearance was the signal for an outburst of emotion on the part of those in the court room. The court officers had difficulty in preventing a demonstration. Quiet was finally restored, however, and once again Mme. Steinhell was placed on the stand and the examination resumed. But the interruption had given her new courage and she returned brilliantly to her defense from the biting sarcasm and bitter denunciation of de Valles.

The story of Lefebvre, who was well dressed and appeared of good address, bears out the original story of Mme. Steinhell regarding the crime. She said the murder was committed by three bearded men wearing long robes and accompanied by a red haired woman. An investigation of Lefebvre's story and of his sanity will be made at once.

CLAIM MATHEWSON IS NON-RESIDENT

Opponents of Overseer Are Busy, but Poor Commissioners Say it Doesn't Matter

On the ground that the new incumbent at the overseer's office at the county poor farm has not resided in La Crosse county for eight years, but has gained a livelihood in the west, only visiting in this city a few months at a time, members of the county board and other county tax payers are making complaint to the La Crosse County Poor commission over the appointment of Arthur Mathewson of Onalaska as overseer.

The contention has been raised that Mathewson just returned from California to La Crosse county two months ago and that he is not a legal resident of this state, and has no right to hold county office. He will take charge at the farm Nov. 16. Those who criticize his appointment claim that he was here on a visit when the position was given him.

Chairman Aiken of the La Crosse County Poor commission said today that the charges are unfounded. He admitted that Mr. Mathewson came to La Crosse from California several months ago, but says he is still a legal resident of Onalaska, as he never removed his household goods from that city, and has paid taxes in the county during the entire period of his absence. "Furthermore, even if he isn't a resident, we can go over into Minnesota and hire a man if we want to," Mr. Aiken continued.

Poor Commissioner Aiken declared that Mr. and Mrs. Mathewson were selected from an unusually attractive class of applicants, because the commission thought they were the best fitted for the position and would give the county the best service.

TWO LIVES INVOLVED IN CLEMINSON MURDER

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—That two lives were snuffed out when Mrs. Nora Jane Cleminson died, was revealed during today's session of the trial of Dr. Haldane Cleminson on the charge of murdering his wife. Dr. Henry C. W. Rheinhart, coroner's physician, testified that he had made a post mortem examination of the body of Mrs. Cleminson and that he had found that she would have become a mother within three weeks had she lived.

JUDGE REID BACK; TAKES TAFT VIEW

State Waterway Commissioner Returns from Europe, but Leaves Immediately for St. Paul

Judge R. S. Reid, Wisconsin waterway commissioner, returned from his European trip last evening, having spent much time in the study of European water courses, part of the time in company with members of the national commission.

Judge Reid was hugely delighted to be in La Crosse again. He returned to New York on the liner Venezia, of the Fabre line, arriving there Tuesday night, and coming in on the Burlington at 6 o'clock last evening. He left at 10 o'clock this morning for St. Paul, but may return to this city shortly for a rest of which he says he feels the need.

Judge Reid expressed himself as highly pleased with the attitude of President Taft toward river improvement, as expressed at New Orleans, i. e., that river improvement is all right, but that before fifty millions are spent there should be some demonstration that commerce awaits the opportunity to use the river. Judge Reid believes that an observing man going by boat from St. Louis to New Orleans could not fail to assume the position adopted by the president.

The judge announced that he has had a profitable, but extremely arduous trip, and that the United States "looked good to him."

HATPIN AND TOOTH END ONE ROMANCE

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Just because pretty Rose Marco stuck a hat pin into a vulnerable part of her sweetheart's anatomy, as he bent over his work in a Hanover street factory, and just because he turned around and knocked out one of her teeth in acknowledgment of the joke, another romance has been shattered.

In the police court Miss Marco held up a small white object for Judge Bennett to inspect. "It's my front tooth, your honor," she explained, "and this man knocked it out by punching me in the face."

The court looked concerned, and asked: "Did it cause much bleeding?"

"Oh, no, judge," answered Miss Marco without a smile, "you see it was a false tooth."

Her somewhat puffed sweet heart, Lewis Saxe, denied having punched the girl in the face. He was fined 15 for his lack of humor.

DEADLOCKED OVER THE ASSESSMENTS

City Members of Board Say
Assessment in Country Districts Should Be Raised

Because the city supervisors of the county board wish to add to the country assessment in the county approximately $172,000 and allow the city's assessment to stand as placed by Supervisor of Assessments James E. Kaiser, and because the country members claim that they are satisfied with the report of the supervisor of assessments and will not consent to any addition being made to the assessments in the country district, the county board committee on assessments, in session for two days in the county court house is deadlocked.

Chairman John Kindley of the committee, supervisor from the seventeenth ward, is the leader of the city supervisors in the controversy, and Supervisors William Wolfe and Herman Roesler are among the country's gladiators who are taking initiative in the battle.

Today the committee summoned before local bankers to testify as to the moneys existing in La Crosse and other parts of the county and more witnesses may be asked to come before the committee and tell what they know of La Crosse city property valuations.

County Supervisor of Assessments J. E. Keizer, whose report is creating all of the havoc, says that the city members' contention that the city has been raised away out of proportion to the county, is not based on fact. Mr. Keizer admits that there is an increase, but says it is less than half of one per cent.

MUST OPERATE ON MRS. SMITH

Mrs. Phillip Smith, whose husband died several weeks ago after three years suffering with a malignant cancer, is gradually becoming more affected by the tumor which has been threatening her life, and her physician today declared that in order to save her life he will take steps to operate upon her at once. Mrs. Smith's sister from the west arrived here this morning and is at her bedside.

OLD CORPORATION TO PROMOTE CITY

New Organization Is Not the First Effort to Advance
the City's Interests

That the new $100,000 promoting corporation now being organized by the board of trade for the purpose of promoting industrial growth in La Crosse was preceded by a similar corporation sixteen years ago came to light this morning when J. S. Medary, after searching in the dusty archives in R. Calvert's office, found the Articles of Incorporation for the La Crosse Promoting Corporation, which in purposes and organization is almost identical with that now being organized.

This old organization was incorporated April 12th, 1893 with capital stock of $100,000, the amount now being arranged. It was immediately after its organization that the panic of 1893 swept down upon the country, with the result that nothing more was attempted by the organizers owing to the stringency of the money market.

The old corporation was organized by some of the very men who are now named in the directorate of the new corporation. George W. Burton, E. E. Bentley and J. M. Holley being among them.

May Gain Pointers
Mr. Medary placed the old corporation papers in the hands of Secretary Utermoehl of the board of trade today, and the latter official says it is likely the new corporation will be able to get some valuable pointers on the details of the constitution, incorporation, etc from them.

The call for the meeting at which the old corporation was formed was issued and signed by Joseph Boschert, R. C. Kuhn, W. W. Withee, W. B. Tschanner, J. L. Pettigill, Mills Tourtellotte and C. S. Van Anken.

Its Purpose
The purposes of the old corporation, its organizers and intentions were set forth in the following premise to the articles:

"Know all men by these presents that we, F. A. Copeland, Mills Tourtellotte, Albert Hirschheimer, G. R. Montague, J. E. Wheeler, Henry A. Salzer, W. S. Cargill, S. Y. Hyde, David Austin, George W. Burton, E. E. Bentley, J. M. Holley, H. P. McGill, J. J. Hogan, B. E. Edwards, John Gund, Robert Calvert and William Luehning, adult persons and residents of the city of La Crosse, La Crosse county, in the state of Wisconsin do hereby associate together for the purpose of forming a corporation under and by virtue of chapter 36 of the revised statutes of Wisconsin for the year 1878, and the acts amendatory thereof, for the purpose of owning, holding and dealing in real estate; to locate, build, encourage and establish manufacturing and manufacturing establishments; to subscribe for and take, own, hold and deal in the capital stock of manufacturing corporations, in the city of La Crosse, in the state of Wisconsin, and to that end do hereby adopt and assign the following articles of association."

SEEK LOOTERS OF
GREEN BAY BANK
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 4.—Although a score of detectives and deputy sheriffs are scouring the country around Green Bay in search of the bold bandit who held up the teller of the Farmers' Exchange bank at Green Bay yesterday noon and obtained $3,300 in cash, there is little expectation that he will be arrested soon. A man answering his description was seen on a country road near Kewaunee this morning. This is the only clue to his whereabouts found since he disappeared into the crowd on the main business street immediately after leaving the bank. Pinkerton men believe the lone robber is a member of the gang which has looted six banks in central Wisconsin in as many weeks.

MRS. G. C. HIXON TO HELP HIGH SCHOOL

Announces Donation of $600
to Finance Gymnastic Course for Girls in That Institution

MOTHERS MAKE AN APPEAL

Sought Action by Board of Education, but Lack of Funds Hampered—
Way Paved Now

It was announced late today that Mrs. G. C. Hixon, today notified Prof. L. P. Benetz, principal of the High school, that she will be glad to donate to the board of education the funds necessary to hire a physical director for girls to undertake the course in compulsory gymnastics in the High school. The chief expense is hiring an instructor, and it is estimated that the necessary sum will be in the neighborhood of $600.

At the meeting of the board last evening representations were made on behalf of Parents' and Teachers' association in favor of such a course, and the obstacle was raised that the board had no funds with which to proceed. Mrs. Hixon's donation relieves the board of its predicament.

The donation has not been officially accepted, but it will be unless it is found that legal obstacle exists, which is hardly possible.

A complete story of the appeal made by the association appears on page seven of this issue.

CHILD OF 3 DEFEATS BURGLAR'S ATTACK

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 4.—Police today are looking for a burglar with tooth marks in his leg. The tooth marks were inflicted by Dorothy Klotzsch, 2½, while the burglar was struggling with Amelia Kaiser, the baby's cousin. The sudden nip at the calf of his leg so startled the burglar that he dropped the older girl's arm and in a twinkling she seized a big revolver from the drawer of a desk behind her and frightened the burglar away.

The Klotzsch family have been saving money for many months and the savings, all in bills, were kept in a pocket book in their bedroom. Amelia, minding the baby, heard someone in the room, went in and saw a man taking the money from the wallet. She dropped the baby on the bed and commanded him to stop the money. The burglar was startled but seeing only a little girl he calmed her and they began a struggle in which Amelia strove to reach the desk in which the revolver was kept. The burglar seeing that she was intent on opening a drawer in the desk tried to reach it himself.

It was then that Dorothy sank her teeth into the burglar's leg. The burglar, Amelia says, was not more than 19 years old though he wore goggles and grey whiskers, which she declares were false. He got only $5 of the money in the wallet.

PURPLE CONCEDED AN EVEN CHANCE

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—When the football eleven representing Chicago and Northwestern meet on Marshall field on Saturday, it will mark the twentieth time that gridiron teams from these institutions have battled with each other. Seventeen years ago, in 1892, the struggle began and the rivalry has continued ever since.

For three years there has been no meeting between the maroons and purple. Following the season of 1905 Northwestern's faculty abolished football for two years. Last year permission was given to resume the game, but everybody who had ever been connected with the gridiron sport had dropped out of the school and to resume was a difficult task. It was impossible to get big games and it was impossible to do more than teach the rudiments of the game to the men who reported for practice. Great strides were made, however, and this year Northwestern is represented by a football squad able to make a good showing in the intercollegiate contests.

Of the nineteen games between the two schools Chicago has won twelve. Northwestern four and three have been tied. That the maroons will not have any walkover when the Evans-ton team faces them at Marshall field is now generally admitted by mid-way routers. It was thought until Minnesota disilluminated them that the Chicago team, with Coach Stagg behind it, was unbeatable.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults.

WILL ELIMINATE BASEBALL SPIKES

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The elimination of steel spikes from the baseball diamond will be discussed at the annual meeting of the American league to be held in New York in December. This was the statement made today by President Ban Johnson. If a suitable substitute for the spikes can be found Johnson believes they will be barred from future games.

The larger number of injuries sustained by players during the past season, he said, has created a feeling that the long sharp steel spikes mar the game and should be abolished. It is expected that a number of club presidents who have players whose speed on the baselines depends largely on the sharpness of their spikes may make strong objection.

LA CROSSE OUT OF CHAMPIONSHIP

Eastern Critics Fail to Mention Locals; Looks Like Fort Atkinson or Marinette

TITLE CLEAR THIS SEASON

Aspirants Have Been Sifted Down to About Four Elevens With Fast Records

Milwaukee football critics in trying to pick the championship high school team in the state this year have failed to even give the local eleven a look in or a possible mention as able to win the honors. That this school is not in the championship race is a well known fact to all followers of the game. Chippewa Falls which defeated the local team is not given even honorable mention.

For the first time in several years it begins to look as though there would be an undisputed Wisconsin State Intercollegiate football championship team. For the last two high school generations there has been one grand muddle when it came to picking a team that had an undisputed claim to the title. It is usually the case to have about two teams in both the northern and southern parts of the state who have made a fair record for the season and they immediately lay claim to first honors and are blind to what the others may happen to think. Then there comes along about two scores of little burs that are known only to railway mail clerks who happen to run across them in their scheme and each of these seem to think they are entitled to some consideration because they have licked their village rivals in the one game of the season. The article of football played by the high schools in the larger cities and those in the little towns is on a far different level as has been shown time and again whenever the big and little "fry" meet. Of course there are exceptions to this when a small place manages to muster up a strong team, but they are few and far between.

Four Teams in The Race
Just now there are about four teams that stand out strong as possible contenders for the championship, but at least two of these will be eliminated as a result of games scheduled for next Saturday. Besides this one can pick two or three others that have shown up fairly well so far, and who may spring one or two surprises before the season becomes much older.

The two teams that look exceptionally strong at this stage of the game are Fort Atkinson in the south and Marinette in the north. Others who are running close behind are Oshkosh, Madison and Monroe.

Coached by "Jumbo" Steinhilber, the old Wisconsin center, the Fort team has been playing a great game and have managed to run up big scores on most of their opponents. Their most notable achievement was the defeat of Milwaukee's East Division last Saturday, whom they walloped to the tune of 54 to 0. The orange and black are not to be classed among the easy ones and any team that can run up 54 points on them must be given serious consideration.

Fast Game Saturday
Next Saturday Fort Atkinson is scheduled to tackle Madison at the Capital City and the game should be one of the best seen in the state this year. If the Fort lads are able to win they will have practically the southern part of the state to themselves.

And if they go after Marinette they should be able to beat them. Counting upon scores Monroe may come in for a claim as they defeated Waukesha highs by a score of 35 to 0, while Racine could register but 29 against the same team. Comparative scores are poor things to judge by, however, as has been shown time and again. The 85 points run up by Monroe is next to the highest score that any high school team in the state has registered this season.

Jumping to the northern part of the state the Marinette high team looms up exceptionally strong and they have set their heart on winning the championship if it takes them until next June to eradicate the other claimants.

Vanderboom, the old Wisconsin star, Beswick, a former Columbia tackle; and Wright, Farquette's quarter in '08, are coaching the team. The Marinette lads have been working like beavers since the first call for practice and despite the fact that the eleven averages but 147 pounds, they have been playing a fast snappy game. East Green Bay, West Greer Bay and Oconto fell before them by scores ranging from 50 to 70 points, but these teams are not in the same class. In Appleton they met an equal and were only able to win by a score of 12 to 6.

Eau Claire is conceded to have a slight chance to win the honors.

GOOD PLAYING AT THE LA CROSSE CLUB

Three more games were played in the handicap billiard tournament at the La Crosse club last evening. A. M. Brayton defeating Dr. Sulter and W. Torrance and J. C. Burns beating C. W. Dow. A. M. Brayton established a high run record of 14 which no doubt will be broken in the next few days' playing:

M'CAREY WANTS

THE BIG SCRAP

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—Tom McCarey of the Pacific Athletic club, Los Angeles, leading fight promoter, does not propose to let anyone else stage the Jeffries-Johnson fight if he can help it.

McCarey said today that he would be in New York a week before the bids are opened, Dec. 1. He would not discuss the purse he would offer but his friends declare it will be in excess of $75,000. Al Greenwald, who is associated with McCarey, declared he would willingly give the fight in return for the picture privileges but it is not thought the fighters would surrender these for any price.

McCarey proposes to stage the fight in the open air and to hold it in the afternoon.

One side of almost any story sounds plausible until we hear the other side.

GLADSTONE'S GHOST

When Shakespeare suggested the return of a spirit to commune with the living mortal he described him
as a "ghost."

Mr. W. E. Stead, the erratic journalist of England, has communion
with departed spirits through "a medium." It is strange how material and business-like these spirits are.
The personnel in this incident are:
a medium, a typewriter, and Mr. Stead,
a tripartite of living mortals who bear
witness of each other.

The spiritual world in the case is represented by "Julia," Mr. W. E.
Gladstone and Cardinal Manning.

The total result of the interview
is seen in a few sentences, attributed to Mr. Gladstone, through "Julia,"
and a blessing from Cardinal Manning. To most of us mundane mortals these occasional airy flights of Mr. Stead's are more intangible, and far less satisfactory, to sense and credence than a good honest ghost.

We can easily suppose young Hamlets wrought-up imagination meeting
that figure of his dead father "clad again in complete steel." But we are quite unable to see why a departed spirit should need a business interview with a professional mystic
and an official reporter, for a seance
in which Mr. Stead is the only other witness.

This strikes us, however, an excellent idea for a newspaper syndicate and we venture to suggest to our enterprising contemporaries of metropolitan importance that here is an inexhaustible and unexplored field
for big specials which might be worked to great advantage. Fancy an interview through an American "Julia" with George Washington to settle forever the disputed question about that cherry tree. Think of a seance with Lord Bacon to ascertain whether or no he wrote Shakespeare. How fine it would be to have honest Abe Lincoln tell us what he thinks of the new tariff bill and whether he would support a measure for a navigable Mississippi. Could not General Grant furnish us a cracker-jack story, of observations from the other world, of Joe Cannon, and also tell us whether Cook reached the north pole?

Mr. Stead's ghosts seem to have

SKIN SUFFERERS' DOUBT IS REMOVED

Specialists Are Convinced that Oil
of Wintergreen Wash Will Cure

Many eczema sufferers have failed
so utterly with salves and other "discoveries" that even the assurance of the best physician or druggist cannot induce them to invest another dollar
in any remedy.

It is to these discouraged sufferers
in particular that we now offer, at only 25 cents, a trial size bottle of the accepted standard eczema remedy
as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription.

The best skin specialists long ago
became convinced that this simple wash offered the only true cure for eczema, and the thousands of cures
could not help but convince us also.

We confidently hope that with our assurances every sufferer will be willing to try this D. D. D. remedy, at 25 cents, especially as we know you can prove instantly with the first application that it takes away the itch at once.

Hoeschler Bros., Special Agents.

the faculty of saying things that are in his own mind. That "current of ever reiterated vibration drawing me towards another center of energy" is something like Stead's coming from London to tell Americans what would happen "if Christ came to Chicago,"
but we never heard of the grand old statesman of England scooting off
"to centers of energy" to advise the people of those centers on matters
of which he had no knowledge or experience.

And why Cardinal Manning? One would think that if the spirit of Gladstone needed a spiritual mentor
he would have drawn from an Episcopal Archbishop rather than from a Roman Catholic prelate. It is a singular revelation that shows us the most distinguished and devout lay reader of the church of England in special affinity and communion with the eminent divine with whom in this life he contended vigorously on matters ecclesiastical.

We used to think of Mr. Stead as a brilliant journalist in the days
when as a young man he drank in
and gave out the political doctrines of Gladstone. But we are afraid that in seeking to bring back that grand old war-horse to the battles of life through ghostly seances and mysterious cabalistic movements,
Mr. Stead has forsaken his calling for the sensation of adventure and bumping.

We suggest to Mr. Stead that public men usually have their full share
of hectoring and newspaper publicity
while here on earth and that living
men can afford to let the dead remain
in peace.

The claim that progressive movement received a setback in Tuesday's election becomes, upon more deliberate analysis, doubtful. The one staggering blow was in San Francisco,
where Heney was defeated and, apparently, graft prosecutions discountenanced. There is room for doubt as to the verity of this conclusion,
however. In New York clean government won a notable victory and Tammany is humbled, its one candidate who may lay claim to cleanliness being the only one elected.
The defeat of Tom L. Johnson puts in office a man in sympathy with the things for which Johnson is fighting, differing with him only in the matter of method. The elections were purely local, and contain no intimation as to the trend on national questions.

"A GIRL AT THE HELM"
In the newspaper and to an audience the chorus of a modern musical comedy is composed of "chorus
men," "show girls" and "broilers,"
but behind the scenes you only hear them spoken of by each other as the
"boys," the "big girls" and the "little girls." The beauty of an ensemble requires mainly looking "boys" of talent for they are all ambition to become principals and indeed they most all do some time.

There is no medicine on earth that will evoke forgetfulness of pain as quickly as the romping gambols of a well trained lot of smiling "little girls" who put heart into their work and ginger into their shapely little limbs. The soft pit-a-pat of their cute little feet doesn't jar the nerves.
If you have never observed this in an audience, just watch your neighbors who witness "A Girl at the Helm" as presented by H. H. Frazee next Saturday, matinee and night, at the La Crosse theater. He has the swiftest bunch of dainty
"little girls" smiling that ever capered before the footlights, the handsomest and best groomed group of
"big girls" and the most talented lot of boys that ever assisted in rounding out a chorus.

GOOD, CLEAN COMEDY
The managers of the La Crosse
theater advises that they have booked for next Sunday, matinee and night at the La Crosse theater, Mr.
James McCabe in the refined comedy,
"The Irish Senator." The dialogue
of "The Irish Senator" is bright, witty and at all times interesting. The story abounds in many comedy situations, which never descend to horse play or vulgarity, which is too often the case in many of the so-called comedies, on the contrary
there is a fund of wit and humor
permeating the entire performance
which is distinctively enjoyable and free from suggestiveness. The company carries their own scenery and at these popular prices there should be a crowded house.

"Lady De Bathe is a very witty person. Her wit is audacious. I'll never forget a specimen of it that enlivened
a Michigan avenue dinner party
on her last American tour."

"Lady De Bathe during dinner said
to a woman seated near her:
"Who is that fat man over there
with the curious blue face?"
"That is my husband" the woman answered, her voice tremulous

WHISKEY FOR COLDS
The increased use of whiskey for colds is causing considerable discussion among the medical fraternity.
It is an almost infallible cure when mixed with certain other ingredients and taken properly. The following is the formula:

Mix two ounces of glycerine with eight ounces of good whiskey and add one-half ounce of Concentrated pine compound. Take a teaspoonful or a tablespoonful every four hours.

Any good druggist has these ingredients.

Concentrated pine is a special pine
product and comes only in half ounce
bottles, each enclosed in an air-tight
case, but be sure it is labeled "Concentrated."

SIS HOPKINS TONIGHT

In Sis Hopkins, which is now being presented for the eleven consecutive season to record breaking audiences by Miss Rose Melville, who originated the famous
country girl character and gave it to the stage, there is an entirely new
"entertainment" scene for the young ladies' seminary commencement. The songs are new and the dancing is delightful. The "pieces" which the girl pupils speak for the benefit of their visiting relatives are characteristic of the country seminary. Sis Hopkins comes to the La Crosse the-

DOCTORS ENDORSE HERPICIDE

Because its Formula is Submitted to Them

Alexander McMillan, M. D., a prominent physician of Lansing, Mich., writes: "On three cases I have tested Herpicide for dandruff and the result has been all that could be desired."

Herpicide is made upon an entirely new principle, that is, that dandruff and falling hair are caused from a microbe that infests the hair bulb,
and, by destroying the microbe one's hair is bound to grow luxuriantly.
Herpicide is the only hair remedy
that claims to and really does, destroy the dandruff germs.

LIVE WIRES

May be appointed United States
senator to succeed the late Senator
Johnson of South Dakota.

FARGO, N. D.—Col. John D. Benton of Fargo, is one of the men discussed for appointment as United States senator to serve till the next legislature session, which will be held in January, 1911, to succeed the late Senator Johnson.

Colonel Benton is a pioneer resident of this section, coming to the Dakota territory in 1878. During his 31 years' residence he has been an active political factor and in 1892 came within vote of being elected United States senator at the time W. N. Roach, North Dakota's first and only democrat was sent to the higher branch of congress.

Colonel Benton was born in Court-
land county, New York, April 2, 1842.
He graduated from the Courtland
academy and the Albany law school.
He was admitted to practice law in New York state and in Dakota territory. For many years he was actively engaged in legal practice in Fargo and at one time had a branch
office at Deadwood.

He was a law partner of former United States Judge Thomas, also of
C. W. Amidson, who is now United States judge.

Colonel Benton was a strong personal friend of late Grover Cleveland, was gold democrat and stumped the state in advocacy of his views. He was president of one of Fargo's banks for six years and has large lands interests in North Dakota. He is a forceful orator.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

In 1910
Father's in his airship
Gone to spend the day,
Looking after loans and bonds
In Europe, o'er the way;
Mother, who likes comfort,
And does not care to roam,
Is shopping via wireless,
In Paris, at her home.

Brother, who in deep seas
Has a coral grove,
Is going in his submarine
Among his crops to rose.
Uncle, in the navy,
Who's left his ship a span,
Is shooting through pneumatic tubes
To join her in Japan.

Sister, who's a suffragette,
Has worked reforms so rare
That even the ward meetings
They open now with prayer;
And when tired by her labors,
She'd body rest and soul,
She goes to spend for pleasure
A week-end at the pole.

In Need of Herod
Portsmouth square, the old Spanish plaza of the city centers a Chinese and Italian tenement population. By all the rules of probability,
there should have been a struggle of the races on Portsmouth square that morning. As a matter of fact, the Italians were stupefied and the Chinese accepted it as a matter of course. When the fire came their way, says Will Irwin in his stories of the San Francisco fire, appearing in Success Magazine, the Chinese took their treasure chests and the Italians their bedding, and trooped in stu-pefied silence into the square, where they camped out under guard of the regular army. On the afternoon of the first day, one, whom we will call
Dr. Friend, passed the square dragging his trunk. An acquaintance met him, and the following resulted:
"Hello, Dr. Friend," he called. A sergeant of regulars heard the greeting.

"Are you a doctor?" he asked.
"Yes."
"Well, there are babies being born over here in the crowd and we've looked everywhere for a doctor.
Come over and get busy."
"I can't refuse to help—but I've got a family waiting for me!" protested the doctor.

"Get busy!" responded the sergeant, with a suggestive shift of his gun. In that day a soldier had only to raise his finger and the citizen obeyed.

Dr. Friend found three patients under a tent of blankets. Everything went nicely. By evening there were three new babies in Portsmouth square. The doctor cut up an army blanket to wrap them. The sergeant halted an army ambulance which happened to be empty. They laid out the mothers—two of them Italian and the third a Pole—on the floor of the ambulance, tucked the babies safely on the shelves, and drove to the temporary receiving hospital.

After the attendants had unloaded mothers and babies, the doctor and
the ambulance started back for Portsmouth square. An orderly ran up and stopped them.

"Doctor," he called, "which baby
goes with which mother?"
Dr. Friend's mouth flew open, and his hand dropped.

"I'll be d—d if I know," he gasped.

"We may as well be frank," said
Griswold in his most professional voice. "I don't want the federal authorities to take these men; it is important that they should not do so.
This is an affair between the government of the two Carolinas. It has been said that neither of them dares press the matter of arrest but I am here in Governor Osborne's behalf to give the lie to that imputation."

"That has undoubtedly been the fact, as you know," and Habersham
smiled at his old preceptor inquiringly. "Osborne once represented the Applegate, and he undoubtedly saved the leader from the gallows.
That was before Osborne ever thought of becoming governor, and he acted only within his proper rights
as a lawyer. I don't recall that anything in professional ethics requires us to abandon a client because we know he's guilty. If such were the case we'd all starve to death."

"Governor Osborne has been vic-tiously maligning," declared Griswold.
"While he did at one time represent
these people—no doubt thoroughly
and efficiently—he holds the loftiest
ideal of public service, and it was only when his official integrity was brought into question by unscrupulous enemies that he employed me as special counsel to carry this affair
through to a conclusion. That accounts for my presence here, Haber-sham, and, with your assistance, I propose to force Governor Dangerfield's hand. Suppose all these people were arrested in Mingo County under these indictments, what would be the result—trial and acquittal?"

"Just that, in spite of any effort
made to convict them."

"Well, Governor Osborne is tired
of this business and wants the Applegate scandal disposed of once and for all."

"That's strange," remarked Haber-
sham, clearly surprised at Griswold's
vigorous tone. "I called on the governor in his office at Columbia only ten days ago, and he put me off. He said he had to prepare an address to deliver before the South Carolina Political Reform Association, and he couldn't take up the Applegate case;
and I called on Bosworth, the attorney-general, and he grew furiously angry, and said I was guilty of the gravest malfeasance in not having brought those men to book long ago. When I suggested that he convict with the governor toward removing our sheriff, he declared that the governor was a coward."

"He seemed anxious to put the governor
in a hole, though why he should take that attitude I can't make out,
as it has been generally understood that Governor Osborne's personal friendliness for him secured his nomination and election to the attorney-generalship, and I have heard that he is engaged to the governor's oldest daughter."

"He's a contemptible hound," replied Griswold with feeling, "and at the proper time we shall deal with him; but it is of more importance
just now to make Applegate a prisoner in North Carolina. If he's arrested over there, that lets us out;
and if the North Carolina authorities
won't arrest their own criminals we'll go over into Dilwell County and show them how to be good. The man's got to be locked up, and he'd look
much better in a North Carolina jail,
under all the circumstances."

"That's good in theory, but how do you justify it in law?"

"Oh, that's the merest matter of formal. My dear Habersham, all the usual processes of law go down before emergencies."

The airiness of Griswold's tone caused the prosecutor to laugh, for this was not the sober associate professor of admiralty whose lectures
he had sat under at the University of Virginia, but a different person,
whose new attitude toward the law
and its enforcement shocked him immeasurably.

"You seem to be going in for pretly loose interpretations, and if that plaster bust of John Marshall up
there falls from the shelf, you need not be surprised," and Habersham
still laughed. "I might be impudent
and cite you against yourself."

"That would constitute contempt
of court, and I can not just now spare your services long enough for you to serve a jail sentence. Go on now, and tell me what you have done and what you propose."

"Well, as I told you over the telephone, we hear a great deal about Applegate and his crowd, but we never hear much of their enemies,

who are, nevertheless, of the same general stock, and equally determined when aroused. Ten of these men I have quietly called to meet at my farm out here a few miles from town,
on Thursday night. They come from different points over the country, and well have a small but grim posse that will be ready for business. You may not know it, but the Applegates are most religious. Applegate himself boasts that he never misses church on Sunday. He goes also to the mid-week service on Thursday night, so I have learned, and thereby hangs our opportunity. Mount Nebo church lies off here toward the north.
It's a lonely point in itself, though
it's the spiritual center and rendezvous for a wide area. If Applegate
can be taken at all, that's the place,
and I'm willing to make the trial.
Whether to stampede the church
and make a fight, or seize him alone
as he approaches the place, is a question for discussion with the boys.
I have engaged to go into the game.
How does that strike you?"

"First rate. Ten good men ought to be enough; but if it comes down to numbers, the state militia can be brought into use. The South Carolina National Guard is in camp, and we can have a regiment quick enough
if I ask it."

Habersham whistled.

"Osborne is certainly up and doing!" he exclaimed, chuckling. "I suppose he has tossed a quarter, and decided it's better to be good than to be senator. By the way, that was a curious story in the newspapers
about Dangerfield and Osborne having a row at New Orleans. I wonder just what passed between them?"

Griswold was conscious that Haber-sham glanced at him a little curiously, with a look that implied something that half formed itself on the prosecuting attorney's lips.

"I know nothing beyond what I read in the newspapers at the time.
Some political row, I fancy."

"I suppose Governor Osborne has not discussed it with you since his return to Columbia?" asked Habersham carelessly. The shadow of a smile
flitted across his face but vanished
quickly as though before a returning consciousness of the fact that he was facing Henry Maine Griswold, who was first of all a gentleman, and not less a scholar and a man of the world, who was not to be trifled with.

"No," replied Griswold, a little shortly. "I was appealed to in rather an unusual way

Try This For a Severe Cough

Take a pint of Granulated Sugar, add ½ pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes. Put 2½ oz. of Pinex in a pint bottle and fill up with the Granulated Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. The taste is pleasant.

The prompt results from this simple home-made article will surprise you. It usually conquers a deep-seated cough in 24 hours, and is a splendid household remedy for hoarseness, whooping cough, colds, chest pains, bronchitis, etc.

The recipe above given makes a full pint—enough to last a family a long time—and costs only 54 cents. It keeps perfectly, and is easily prepared in five minutes. Children take it willingly.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway White Pine Extract. It is rich in all the well-known pine elements which are so healing to membranes.

None of the weaker pine preparations can compare with the real Pinex itself. All druggists have it, or will get it for you if requested.

Strained honey can be used instead of the syrup, and makes a very fine honey and pine tar cough syrup.

MILWAUKEE AHEAD IN RACE OF SILK

Two Trainloads worth Half Million Pass Through the City Today

With right of way over all other trains, a Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound special train, which left Tacoma, Wash., the night of October 31, with $390,000 worth of silk for New York delivery, arrived at the Milwaukee yards on the North side shortly before 8 o'clock this morning. It is a big race between the Northern Pacific and Burlington and the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound roads from St. Paul down. The Burlington train was scheduled to arrive at Grand Crossing shortly after noon today.

The opposition train left Tacoma 21 hours ahead of the Milwaukee with a train load of silk valued at $360,000. The Milwaukee road is now about five hours ahead of the Burlington in the cross country race. This is a continuation of the race across the Pacific ocean between the blue funnel liner Oanfa and the Milwaukee steamer Tacoma Maru. The Oanfa arrived Saturday and the Maru Sunday, twenty-one hours later. The train was pulled out on the La Crosse division shortly after 8 o'clock this morning by Engineer Tim Tierney and Conductor Roy Haines. It is being pulled by a passenger engine. A hot box at the North side delayed the train about twenty minutes this morning. The train also contains two cars of fish consigned to a firm at Hamburg, Germany. The other four cars are loaded with expensive silks.

Miss Emma Larson of Paulsbo, Wash., is visiting for a few weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. O. L. Christenson, 1502 George street.

FORMER MINISTER BURNED BY ACID

Rev. A. L. Wood Meets with a Serious Accident which Nearly Costs His Sight

Word has been received by north side friends of Rev. A. L. Wood, formerly the pastor of the Caledonia Street M. E. church, that he is still in a precarious condition as the result of sulphuric acid splashing in his face at his home at Eau Claire several days ago.

The liquid splashed into his eyes and for a time there was danger that he might lose the sight of both of the optics. He is still under the care of a specialist, and his condition is somewhat improved.

Rev. Wood was carrying a basin of the acid across the room at his home when in some manner he tripped on something on the floor. He was rushed to a hospital where he is receiving the best possible treatment. Rev. Wood was formerly a druggist.

CARRIAGE STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

While driving around the corner of Wall and Caledonia street Tuesday evening, George Oeltjendier was struck from behind by the automobile belonging to John H. Harrier, 303 Mill street. No one was hurt, but the carriage was damaged. Mr. Harrier stopped his machine to ascertain the amount of the damage. He has offered to have the carriage repaired at his own expense.

PARK PLANS CHANGED.

Landscape Gardener John Nolen, who has made plans for the new Copeland park on the North side, has changed his plans to allow more park room without interfering with the playground feature of the park.

At a meeting with the park commission held Wednesday afternoon the park expert announced that he will move the baseball park from Windsor street, where it was before located, down toward the ladies' outdoor gymnasium at the south end of the park, thus leaving this space open for park purposes. Mr. Nolen expressed satisfaction with Copeland park and the work being done there, and said he is much pleased with the park work in general. Col. F. A. Copeland has placed an automobile at the disposition of Park Superintendent Twerson for use in his work.

The Sewing circle of the German Lutheran church tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Rosa Eggen spent last week at her home in Mindoro.

Rev. O. H. Sietten of Blanchardville, Wis., arrived in the city this morning to participate in the meetings which are being held at the Bethel Norwegian Lutheran church. Rev. Jens Halvorsen of Ashland, Wis., spoke at the services last evening.

Rev. T. Hovstad left this morning for Houston, Minn.

William Horn, New Lisbon, formerly a gate tender for the Milwaukee road here, stopped off this morning long enough to shake hands with a few of his old time acquaintances.

WALTER JORDAN IS BURIED YESTERDAY

Walter Jordan, Chicago, the man who was found dead at Medary last Saturday morning by B. O. Cresap, assistant foreman of the Bates and Rogers Construction company, was buried in Oak Grove cemetery yesterday afternoon, Undertaker Dwyer in charge.

MINISTERS' CONFERENCE.

Ministers of the Norwegian Lutheran church opened a conference at the Bethel Evangelical Lutheran church, corner of George and Sill streets, last night. Rev. O. L. Christenson expects that the meetings which will be held the remainder of the week including Sunday, will be largely attended by both local and visiting pastors. Services are being conducted this afternoon and evening, tomorrow afternoon and evening, and Sunday morning and evening.

WORLD'S OLDEST FIREMAN IS DEAD

Edward Entwistle Acted as Fireman on Stephenson's "Rocket" Seventy-eight Years Ago

Edward Entwistle, fireman of the first locomotive in the world, Stephenson's "Rocket," died at his home, Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday, at the advanced age of 94 years. His wife preceded him in death by six weeks.

When Stephenson made the initiative trip from Manchester to Liverpool on the Rocket, Entwistle, then a lad of 16 years of age, acted as fireman. Stephenson held the throttle for the first few trips, then turned the locomotive over to Entwistle, who made two trips each day for about three years.

His death marks an era in history. He was the last survivor of those who labored with the creator of steam locomotives which has revolutionized the world. Great was the old man's pride during the last few years when his mind reverted to his childhood and he was permitted to behold the vast results of their work.

It was a far cry from running a locomotive at the "astonishing" rate of twelve miles an hour to the thundering giants of iron which now dash across the country a mile a minute with electric lights, air brake, automatic devices of every description, enabling the almost human thing which is endowed with a mountain of power to draw as high as a hundred freight cars in a string a quarter of a mile long.

In telling the oft repeated story to his friends, Entwistle was apt to philosophize on the peculiar fatality of the locomotive. On that memorable first trip of the Rocket when the promoters were riding on the little cars, bowing and smiling to the cheering people, one of them, Lord Huskinson, accidentally fell between the cars and was run over and killed by the third car. Since the first, then, the railroad train has been a slayer of men.

Edward Entwistle was born in March, 1815, at Tilsley's Banks, Lancashire, England. At the age of 11 years he was apprenticed to the Duke of Bridgewater, who had large machine shops at Manchester, eleven miles from the lad's home. In these shops Stephenson, the inventor, chose to build his first locomotive, and when it was completed, young Entwistle, who had taken delight in watching its growth and in working upon it, was engaged as fireman. He was 16 years old at that time but was chosen in preference to older boys because of his ability and the interest he had taken in the locomotive.

DOWN'S FAILS TO PRESENT COMPLAINT

The charges which were to have been preferred against the police department by Alderman John Downs of the North side, were not presented at the regular meeting of the fire and police commission last evening. Mr. Downs asserted this morning that he is still waiting for something to develop before he brings his charges. He still maintains that the charges will ultimately be brought before the commissioners for final action, but has decided upon no definite time for their appearance.

AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR.

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by O. T. Erhart.

WEST SALEM LADIES ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

WEST SALEM, Wis., Nov. 4.—Monday evening fourteen of our ladies entertained about two hundred guests at Roberts' hall at a Halloween party. The hall was beautifully decorated in pumpkins, gay colored foliage and bunting. The guests were served to a 6 o'clock dinner, consisting of all the goodies that ghosts used to have in olden days, by the hostesses, who were dressed in yellow and black caps and dresses. After doing justice to the fine dinner the guests were entertained with a fine program consisting of drills, music and speaking, after which they bade the hostesses good night, thanking them for a royal good time.

A physician of Gallon, O., says: "For the last few years I have been a sufferer from indigestion and although I have used various remedies and prepared foods with some benefit it was not until I tried Grape-Nuts that I was completely cured."

"As a food it is pleasant and agreeable, very nutritious and is digested and assimilated with very little effort on the part of the digestive organs."

As a nerve food and restorer it has no equal and, as such, is especially adapted to students and other brain workers. It contains the elements necessary for the building of nerve tissue and by so doing maintains an equilibrium of waste and repair."

"It also enriches the blood by giving an increased number of red blood corpuscles and in this way strengthens all the organs, providing a vital fluid made more nearly perfect. I take great pleasure in recommending its use to my patients for I value it as a food and know it will benefit all who use it."

chrysanthemums. The fire place was entirely concealed by trailing vines of myrtle. The balustrade was interlaced with southern smilax. Yellow chrysanthemums were used lavishly relieved by masses of smilax and asparagus ferns. The mantles, book shelves and chandeliers were draped with long festoons of ferns and smilax, and friezes of southern smilax encircled the ceilings. The bridal table was in white. Covers were laid for fourteen. In the center was a beautiful display of bride's roses and silver candlesticks were covered with dainty white silk shades. Broad satin ribbon tied in true lovers knots were arranged effectively among the appointments of silver and cut glass. The library was in pink with roses and chrysanthemums in profusion. Covers were laid in this room for fourteen. Another table in the hall with covers for nine, was decorated with lilies of the valley.

The bride was robed in a rich, but simple gown of white duchess satin, the bodice and sleeves being of duchess and point lace. The skirt was made with a train and fell in graceful lines accentuating the height of the fair bride. She wore a long veil confined with sprays of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was white orchids and lilies of the valley and was tied with a long streamer of chiffon satin ribbon from which hung innumerable streamers of narrow ribbon.

The maid of honor looked handsome and stately in a beautiful pink ottoman satin, the front and back veiled with silver spangled net, bands of silk embroidery and finished with bands of silk embroidery. She carried an armful of pink chrysanthemums. The bride's going away gown was of navy blue cloth with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Hyde left on the midnight Burlington for Washington and other eastern cities, where they will spend several weeks.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clark W. Thompson of Cascade Locks, Ore., the Misses Kerndt and Mr. Moritz Kerndt of Lansing, Iowa, Miss Clara Doerr of Minneapolis and Miss Tillie Hoffman of Milwaukee.

Miss Viola Doerflinger had the honor of catching the bridal bouquet.

A CHRYSANTHEMUM WEDDING
There was a beautiful wedding yesterday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Funk, 1407 Main street, the bride being their daughter, Miss Anna Y. Funk, and the groom Mr. Samuel Y. Hyde, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. Hyde.

At 5:45 as the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march by the Kreutz orchestra were heard, the bridal party consisting of the bride and groom, preceded by little Eleanor Schaeffle, niece of the bride, bearing on a yellow satin pillow the wedding ring, descended the broad stairway and entered the reception room and took their stand in an enclosure representing a miniature garden of tall palms and graceful ferns. At the entrance stood tall vases filled with large pink chrysanthemums and ferns. A back ground of white draped with festoons of southern ferns made an effective showing for the beautiful gowns of the bride and her attendant.

Vases filled with chrysanthemums, roses and ferns were placed about the room while trailing vines drooped from the chandeliers. A frieze of southern smilax gave a finish to this beautiful bower.

Here in waiting was the Rev. French, former vice president of Notre Dame university, who pronounced the solemn words which joined the young couple. Miss Viola Doerflinger was maid of honor and Mr. Albert Funk, brother of the bride, was best man. The house was most elaborately decorated with flowers, foliage and trailing vines, and looked like a veritable bower of beauty. In the front hall yellow was used in conjunction with green. On either side of the mantle were tall wicker vases filled with beautiful yellow

BRITISH MEASURE MAY EFFECT WORLD

Budget Bill Attacks House of Lords and Opens the Way for Tariff Measure

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Debate on the budget in the house of commons ends at midnight tonight and the most revolutionary financial bill ever introduced in the English parliament, a bill offered to create an opportunity for the commons to demand the abolition of the house of lords, will pass the lower house by a majority of about 250.

The budget will be formally introduced in the house of lords on Monday and that body, upon receiving it, will adjourn until Nov. 22 when the real fight against its passage will begin.

The outcome of the fight will effect not only England but the United States and practically the whole civilized world as well.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George admits the budget is an attack on the aristocracy. It is no secret that the heavy land and income taxes imposed were intended to force the rejection of the measure by the peers so that liberals might have an opportunity to demand the abolition of the house of lords as a legislative body. The peers declare they will fight for their class to the last ditch.

A Religious Author's Statement.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy."

TO BURY OLD

RESIDENT HERE

Mrs. Sarah Smith, sister of Mrs. Rosella Lathrop, 821 King street, and widow of the late E. G. Smith, who was one of the old settlers of La Crosse, died at her home at Worcester, Mass., Tuesday noon. Death came very suddenly and is believed to have been caused by apoplexy.

Mrs. Smith left La Crosse about fifteen years ago, soon after the death of her husband in this city, to reside with her daughter, Gertrude E. Smith, in Worcester. She is well known here among the old residents. Her husband was associated with C. C. Smith in this city in the early seventies in the bridge contracting business, and this firm later erected the La Crosse foundry, now known as the James foundry.

Beside her sister, Mrs. Lathrop, who resides here, Mrs. Smith is survived by another sister, Mrs. T. Bemis, who resides in the east; a daughter, Miss Gertrude Smith, and two sons, Winfield and Winthrop A. Smith, who are engaged in business in the west. Deceased lacked one month of being eighty years of age.

The remains will be brought to this city Saturday morning and will be interred in Oak Grove cemetery by the side of her husband. The casket will arrive over the Milwaukee road at 6:05 a. m. and will be taken directly to the cemetery, where the Rev. A. Lincoln Shute will conduct brief services at the grave.

LOVE ENDS IN A TRAGIC KILLING

BLUEFIELDS, W. Va., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Vincent Fairdine, is in a local hospital seriously wounded today while Michael Brunilda, a jilted lover, is dead following a tragic ending of a romance that started in Sicily.

The Sicilian girl had two sweethearts in her home country but one of them came to America. Later she followed him and they were married in Brooklyn and came to West Virginia.

Brunilda, too, came to America and found his former sweetheart in the home of her husband yesterday. The jealous Sicilian immediately drew a revolver and fired, the bullet striking Mrs. Fairdine in the breast. The woman secured her husband's revolver, however, and shot and seriously wounded Brunilda just as her husband entered the door. Taking the pistol from his wife Fairdine then stood over the prostrate form of his wounded rival and shot him to death.

COMMISSION WILL NOT STOP IN CITY

Congressman J. J. Esch today received a letter from Congressman Stevens of Minnesota, informing him the federal waterways commission will pass here at midnight Saturday night and cannot be induced to stop as they must be in New Orleans Nov. 18th. Efforts of the La Crosse board of trade and the desire of Mr. Esch to have them stop here will therefore be dropped.

Dubuque is also making an effort to have the commission stop, which will likely also fail.

HER LIFE A BURDEN

Now Lady Says She Would Not Be Placed Back Where She Was For Whole World

Ratcliff, Tex.—"Two years ago, my health was very bad," writes Mrs. Mattie Campbell, of this place.

"I suffered untold misery every month. It is useless to say where my worst aches were, for I ached all over every month.

"At times I wished for death to end my suffering, for life was a burden to me.

"Finally I decided to take Cardui. First I tried one bottle and it helped me so much I ordered $5.00 worth I took the six bottles, which kept me in fine health for one year and saved a large doctor's bill.

"I took six more bottles and can now say that 12 bottles of Cardui have stopped my suffering, made life worth living and filled my home with joy and happiness.

"I would not be placed back, like I was two years ago, not for this whole world rolled at my feet.

"Your wonderful medicine, Cardui, has my praise for all its great works and I do wish that every suffering woman in the world would only try this grand medicine."

If you suffer as Mrs. Campbell did, be sure that Cardui will help you, as it did her.

Why not try it?
Your druggist sells it.
Ask him.

MORE MONEY ELSE NORTH SIDE WAITS

Not Enough Allowed Water Fund in Budget to Permit Repairing Pipe Across River

Unless the finance committee grants an additional $3,000 to the water maintenance appropriation, the plan of the board of public works to rebuild the water supply pipe across La Crosse river will have to be dropped and the North side will suffer consequently.

The board asked $20,000, but received only $17,000 in the allowances. Application has been made for the $3,000 additional with which to make necessary repairs on the pump at the pump house, install needed new piping there, and even then the board doubts if it will be possible to put in the needed improvement in the supply piping across La Crosse river to the North side.

If you desire a clear complexion, take Foley's Orino Laxative for constipation and liver trouble, as it will stimulate these organs and thoroughly cleanse your system, which is what everyone needs in order to feel well. O. T. Erhart.

ATTORNEY KNOCKS OPPONENT DOWN

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 4.—Former Judge Henry S. Priest, one of the best known attorneys in St. Louis, today twice struck Attorney John A. Gillman, knocking him to the floor, during an argument in court in which the lie was passed. Priest then walked up to the bench and remarked to Judge Muench, who was presiding, "I am tired of being insulted by Gillman."

Judge Priest is attorney for the Waters-Pierce Oil company and for H. Clay Pierce and also appeared for the Standard Oil Co., during phases of the famous suit for the dissolution of the company. Priest, angered at an interruption, called Gillman a liar, according to persons in the court who heard the quarrel. The court reprimanded Priest but no citation for contempt was made. The case was adjourned until tomorrow. Judge Priest in speaking of the affair afterward said he lost his temper and was sorry. He said he would probably be fined tomorrow.

ALDRICH-CUMMINS BOTH SAME DAY

The Standpat and Insurgent Leaders to be Banqueted at Chicago Next Saturday

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—For one whole day Chicago will house within its borders, the leaders of the "insurgents" and "standpaters" who fought each other tooth and nail during the recent tariff debate in congress—United States Senators Cummins and Aldrich. Both men will come here Saturday morning and both will express their radically differing views at banquets on Saturday night—though they will not appear at the same banquet.

Senator Aldrich, who is chairman of the monetary commission appointed to investigate banking conditions abroad and to recommend changes in the American financial system, will be the guest of honor Saturday night at a banquet to be given by the Chicago Commercial club. He is expected to explain for the first time the coming report of the monetary commission and to outline the legislature the committee expects to recommend. His address will be the first of a series he will deliver during the next two weeks which are said to be designed to "feel out" public opinion regarding the proposed central bank idea.

Senator Cummins on the same night will be the guest of honor of the Marquette club at a banquet. He will speak on the tariff bill and address from Des Moines, where he has been preparing his address, declare that he will reply directly to the charges made against him by Speaker Cannon in several recent addresses. The same address says that Cummins' remarks will be "red hot."

A great deal of interest attaches to the simultaneous presence in the city of Aldrich and Cummins inasmuch as Aldrich is one of the joint authors of the tariff bill.

FEWER "DATES" ARE MADE BY MAIL

Since the enforcement of the post-office order issued in this city by Postmaster William B. Tscharner, denying young girls the use of the general delivery privilege until their claim to the service has been investigated has resulted in a marked drop off in the business.

Factory girls, shop girls and others under age who had been in the habit of carrying on clandestine correspondence with male companions without the knowledge or consent of their parents are now receiving their mail at home, or otherwise have found a medium through which to correspond. There is nothing in the new rule to prevent legitimate use of the mails.

NAME NEW GAME WARDEN IN WEEK

After meeting the three men in the highest examinations here some time ago, for the position of deputy game warden, vacated by George L. Kingsley, State Deputy Warden J. F. Guden of Racine yesterday left as to who will get the position. Edward Gautsch of this city passed the examinations with the highest standing, his percentage being 83. The other two applicants had high standings and were invited to meet Mr. Guden were Arthur Holmes of Trempealeau and Charles Miller of Arcadia. The appointment will be announced the latter part of the week.

CAPTAIN IS HELD IN BUFFALO HOSPITAL

"The steamer Omaha whose master, Capt. Louis Holmes, Milwaukee, disappeared in Ogdensburg, during a fit of mental aberration, arrived in port on Wednesday with a cargo of coal. The boat is being saluted by Capt. C. S. Smith, who was mate before Capt. Holmes left the boat. Capt. Holmes is in a sanitarium in Buffalo, where he was apprehended by the police."

The foregoing from a Milwaukee paper indicates that the mental condition of the captain whose trouble was mentioned in The Tribune last night, may recover. The steamer Omaha, mentioned, is owned by Mrs. S. O. Neff, sister of Mrs. H. L. Taylor of this city, and is one of the "Neff fleet" of boats.

MRS. ARBOGAST IS ACQUITTED TODAY

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Mina Arbogast has been acquitted by a jury in the district court where she was being tried on the charge of the murder of her husband, Louis Arbogast, who was found early on May 17 in his home with his head split open by an axe.

The acquittal came after a trial of more than two weeks which began Oct. 18 and after a long day of argument by County Attorney O'Brien and Attorney Patrick J. McLaughlin for the defense.

The jury returned the verdict at 2:15 p. m. today, having been out nearly 24 hours.

GREAT RACERS BURN

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 4.—The celebrated racing stable of Count Tysskiewicz, the finest in Europe outside of England, was totally destroyed by fire today. One hundred valuable racing horses beside the famous stud animals for which the stable was noted, were burned to death.

TO MAKE FRISCO PARIS OF AMERICA

New Mayor Promises to Paint Western Metropolis Bright Vermillion Hue in Hot Paint

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The dropping of the graft prosecutions and the making of San Francisco the widest open town in the country, will, it is generally believed today, be the speedy result of the election of P. H. McCarthy to the mayoralty and of Charles Fickert to the county prosecutorship.

McCarthy announced today that he wants to "make San Francisco the Paris of America." It is believed on all sides that the mayor-elect has in mind the sporting features of Paris, rather than its artistic achievements.

It is still being openly charged that Fickert, the Fusion candidate, who beat Francis J. Heney, was backed by Patrick Calhoun, head of the United Railroad company, who was recently tried on a charge of bribery, the jury disagreeing. The San Francisco Post, which is bitterly opposed to the graft prosecutions, supported Fickert.

These facts, in connection with Fickert's statement to the United Press today that "he did not believe in the un-American spy system that had been employed by Heney to gather evidence in his graft prosecution" have convinced a large part of the public that a cessation of the fight against graft may be looked for.

Jerome Bassitt, a saloon keeper, was the leading campaign worker of McCarthy. Bassitt was also one of the backers of Eugene Schmitz, San Francisco's former boodling mayor, and it is now believed the same forces that were behind Schmitz will be found lined up with McCarthy.

Bassitt has already said he expected the "lid to be removed from the city."

20 Years With Heart Trouble

"Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy has cured me of heart disease of over 20 years' standing. I was so bad that I could not do my work, and could scarcely draw a full breath without fainting or smothering. The doctor told me he could do no more for me; then I commenced taking the Heart Remedy. I shall never forget that night. I slept better than I had before in months. I kept right on getting better, until I was perfectly well."

MRS. LAURA RUSSELL,
Logan, Iowa.

When the heart action is weak, it fails to pump the blood through the lungs with sufficient rapidity. Then the lungs do not absorb the proper amount of oxygen, although they may be taking in a normal amount of air. The result is shortness of breath, smothering spells, difficult breathing, oppressed feeling in chest. Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, and in this way increases the circulation.

Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

Removing the outward symptoms is not all that is necessary to cure Contagious Blood Poison. The virulent germs which produce these external manifestations must be completely driven from the blood before a cure can be effected. The least taint left in the circulation will sooner or later cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all its hideous symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots, falling hair, sores, ulcers, etc. Only a blood purifier can cure Contagious Blood Poison. Medicines which merely check the symptoms for a time, because of the strong mineral nature, and leave the poison smoldering in the system, have brought disappointment to thousands. The disease always returns after such treatment. S.S.S. cures Contagious Blood Poison and cures it permanently. It goes into the blood, and removes every particle of the poison making the circulation pure, rich and healthy, nor does S.S.S. leave the slightest trace of the disease for future outbreaks. S.S.S. does not contain any mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks which are most valuable in their blood-purifying properties, and at the same time specifically adapted to building up the entire system. If you have Contagious Blood Poison S.S.S. will cure you because it will thoroughly purify your blood. Home Treatment Book and any medical advice free to all.

ROOKERY BUILDING, CHICAGO

Sunday evening. A great many pastors, friends and relatives of the congregation were entertained in the city during the convention. The church gathering had many special features. Every day had three sessions from 10 to 12 a. m., from 2 to 4 p. m. and from 7:45 to 9 p. m. The speaking was augmented with solos and selections rendered by the large choir of the church.

The English session was held Friday with a special sermon by H. Rasmussen of Winona. The jubilee services proper were held on Sunday. In the morning Rev. R. Anderson of this city delivered the powerful jubilee sermon. In the afternoon the children's session was held. In the evening was the closing feature with short speeches by the visiting clergymen and special songs. The church edifice was thronged to the utmost for every session.

Three of the very pioneers of the congregation, namely Isaac Abrahamson, Selbjon L. Haukland and wife, Mrs. Haukland, had reserved seats and were, in spite of old age, able to attend the jubilee. Mr. Haukland even addressed the convention.

The St. Peter church has been fixed up for this occasion in proper shape. A basement and furnace has been installed. The decorations and paintings have been done by Mr. Gust Thronsdon of Houston. A beautiful blue arch in front of the altar painting had the inscription "Welcome," and to the left and the right side the years 1858 and 1909 greeted the audience. Carnations and chrysanthemums perfected the decorations.

The St. Peter church has several strong organizations.

The pastor of the church is Rev. T. Hovstad, pastor of the Trinity church of this city.

The congregation was organized the 26th day of July, 1858, by Rev. Mr. A. A. Scheil of Newburg, Minn.

A history of the St. Peter church as well as a biography of the organizer was read during the jubilee convention.

COMPULSORY GYM WORK IS DISCUSSED

Minor Matters Are Also Considered by Adjourned Meeting of the Board of Education Yesterday

A question of vital importance, that of introducing compulsory gymnasium work for the girl students of the high school, was discussed by a committee representing the Teachers' and Parents' association before the adjourned meeting of the board of education held yesterday afternoon in Superintendent Bird's office.

Miss Mathew's, a teacher at the school was the first speaker, and she said that the high school girls are at present doing more than they are able to do and as a result the health of the young ladies is being impaired. Every day, said Miss Mathew's girls appear in the class rooms utterly unfit to be in school simply from over study and lack of sufficient recreation. The plan is to have each and every girl examined by a competent physician before allowing them to indulge in the gymnasium work after which they will be compelled to attend gymnasium classes at least twice a week. The cost of instituting this course would not exceed $1,200 per annum according to the figures of the Normal school director. The plea to adopt this course of training for the young ladies was taken up further by Mrs. D. G. Whyte and Mrs. Sam Anderson.

As the school board has not ample means to add this course to the regular work of the high school without making a deficit the matter was left over until the common council might be petitioned. As this question interests every parent who has a daughter attending the high school it is likely that the citizens of La Crosse will aid in every way they can toward the securing of a course which will prove beneficial to their daughters.

The regular routine business of the board was then taken up. The committee on grounds and buildings was authorized to enter into contracts for the insuring of the boilers in the public schools. Contracts for 103 cords of wood to be delivered at the various buildings will be made in the near future.

Buy Adding Machine
A new adding machine, to be used in the Commercial department of the high school will be purchased by the board as soon as a suitable machine can be selected.

As a great deal of complaint has been made by residents living in the near vicinity of the Seventh district school it was deemed advisable to build a fence around the school property.

The use of the money taken in at the last commencement exercises was left to Professor Benezet to be expended in purchasing of periodicals for the high school library and the securing of material from Miss Congdon, who is now in Rome, which may be used in the Latin classes.

Single sessions will be held in the public schools Wednesday, Nov. 10, that the teachers may attend the dedication exercises of the new Normal school on that day.

Professor Benezet asked the opinion of the board in regard to allowing the students to use the high school gymnasium for dances and other entertainments. "Several times," said Mr. Benezet, "boys have come to me and asked if a dance could not be held in the gymnasium." As some citizens might object to this the board refused to grant this privilege.

Miss Fern Hackett and Professor Wieland were granted a two day's leave of absence to attend the Wisconsin State Teachers' association which will be held Thursday and Friday.

"DEFEAT LA CROSSE" IS SPARTA SLOGAN

SPARTA, Wis., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—With three coaches to put the finishing touches to their work and make needed changes in the team's lineup the Sparta high school football team will leave no stone unturned in their endeavor to so condition themselves as to win the game from La Crosse on Thanksgiving day which is the slogan of the team.

Dr. Barlow, former coach and a former star halfback, will hereafter guide the destinies of the back field and Zed Gray, an old linesman and football star, will take charge of the line work, while Coach Wells will give his entire time to devising and carrying into perfection trick plays and forward pass work.

The Sparta team was given a shake-up in its practice last night and aside from fumbling by reason of the changing of position the work showed a marked effect and the team will be greatly strengthened by the switching of the heavier men in the line and the fleet footed men have been switched to the back field. A few more changes may be made before the men are settled on for regular positions.

Ewers played at full-back last night. Williams, former end, at halfback in Ewers' place. Walters was switched from fullback to tackle and Abrahamson played at end.

Sparta Briefs
A record was made in granting marriage licenses in Monroe county during October, when forty licenses were granted. To date 1,700 hunting licenses have been sold in Monroe county.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good."

Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures. If you want a book that tells all about women's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. ## COMPANIONS.

MENOMINEE, Mich.—Menominee is the home of one of the most valuable and intelligent dogs in the country, Clipper Okaw, a handsome English setter, the property of Fred Stephenson, the well known American capitalist and sportsman, who is now enjoying a hunting trip in Africa in company with John T. McCutcheon, the cartoonist, and a distinguished party.

Mr. Stephenson thinks more of Clipper Okaw than any other dog he owns, and his kennels in Texas are said to be among the finest in the country, and hesitated to leave him behind on his departure for the African wilds. He persuaded his friend, Fred Harrison of this city, who is a thorough sportsman and one of Michigan's crack shots, to keep him during his absence.

Clipper Okaw loves children and his best friend is Eddie Gosling, a son of a prominent business man of this city, who insisted on being in the picture when his play fellow was to be photographed.

Clipper Okaw is one of the canine aristocrats of America. In 1907 he won first in the field trial of Texas over 15 other blue blooded contestants. The same year he won second in the field trials of Oklahoma. He is valued at $1,000 by dog fanciers but money could not buy him from Mr. Stephenson.

LION TAMER IS VICTIM OF CUPID

Three Couples in One Circus
Now on Honeymoon,
while Animals Are in Winter Quarters

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 3.—Cupid's round up of performers in the 101 Ranch Wild West Show constituted the grand finale of the 1909 circus season in the southwest. Three couples fell victims to the little god, his crowning triumph embracing lion tamers, broncho busters and cowgirls. Three honeymooners are now heading toward Bliss, Okla., where their show has its winter quarters.

Miss Lydia Kelly, lion tamer, who will defy any wild beast, wilted when Thos. A. Wilmoth, another tamer, suggested that the minister unite them during the concluding performance of the show in East St. Louis and they were wedded quietly by a justice today just before taking the train for Oklahoma.

CLASS PLANS AT THE NEW Y. M. C. A.

The Young Men's Christian Association is planning to inaugurate work in its educational department next week. The equipment in the new building is admirable for carrying on this work, the rooms being segregated by themselves on the second floor, large and well lighted, and heated, every room being amply equipped with blackboard space.

The Association plans to have classes in English for foreigners, penmanship, bookkeeping, arithmetic, stenography, mechanical drawing, and any other subject for which twelve or more students may be secured. Instructors are available for the above named classes and if the young men and boys who are interested in these subjects will call at the Association this week or the first part of next and enroll, the classes will be started as soon as there are enough entered.

The season is late in beginning in the new building because of delay in opening the new home of the Y. M. C. A. The rates for tuition in each class will be very low and a special educational membership has been arranged for so that the expense connected with the Y. M. C. A. Night School is no hardship on any young man.

Some advertising matter is being distributed in the shops, factories, and stores relative to the Y. M. C. A. Night School. Already there are nearly a sufficient number of students to assure the English for foreigners' class. Miss Prescott, who has so ably handled this class the last few years, will again be in charge. If there are others, who are in our city who cannot speak the American language, their friends are urged to send them to the Association that they may become quickly Americanized.

The plan of instruction in all the Association classes is largely individual, so that anyone enrolling in any of the classes listed, may be sure of making rapid progress in the same, beginning in the study where he left off when leaving public schools.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU CONTINUES SUCCESS

During the past month of October Superintendent T. A. McMullin of the Wisconsin Free Employment Bureau has secured positions for 117 men and 47 women. This represents a decrease of 32 in the male and an increase of 7 in the female class of workers. The superintendent states that this is the season of the year that the applications for positions begin to decrease. Most of the men are sent to the woods, to the railroads and to sewer jobs. During the past month 25 men were sent to a logging concern near Tomahawk, Wis.

Domestics of all kinds are scarce as ever. The demand for girls to work around the house in the capacity of cooks, domestics in the dining room and in the nursery is much in excess of the supply.

Following the report for the month of October:
Male—Canvassers, 6; deliverymen, 3; farm hands, 6; laborers, 113; quarrymen, 2; painters, 4; factory hands, 14; teamsters, 3; yardmen, 3; janitors, 2; carpenters, 2.

Female—Domestics, 15; kitchen girls, 10; laundry girls, 6; nurse girls, 1; scrub women, 6; factory, 5; Dining room girls, 2; washwomen, 2.

NEGROES HUNTED FOR ASSAULT

ELKINS, W. Va., Nov. 4.—An angry mob surrounded the jail at Gasaway early today where two negroes are held, suspected of being the companions of a negro named Lewis, who assaulted the wife of Albert Rockhold Tuesday night after robbing the house and binding Rockhold in bed.

Lewis is dead, having been shot through the head by a member of the posse hunting him down and though the police believe they have the other two negroes connected with the crime now in custody, the posse continued its search today while another mob surrounded the jail. Mrs. Rockhold is reported in a serious condition.

GOAT HOLDS UP THE POLICE STATION

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 4.—A huge mountain goat strayed into the central police station through the front entrance at midnight last night and put the officers in a panic. The animal was not in a good humor to frolic about the station in a manner that made the brave officers scamper to places of safety.

The goat, finding itself in sole possession of police headquarters, made a charge upstairs to the cell rooms and began bucking its horns against the iron bars. This aroused the slumbering "drunks," several of whom began to think they saw things and shouted for help. The barn force, the operators and surgeons were called into service and finally the goat was corralled and dragged down stairs and placed in the barn.

FLIES TO WIN CUP

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 4.—With fifty bags of ballast, calculated to enable it to stay aloft longer than any other balloon which ever left here, the Melba III, bearing Captain Berry, winner of the national championship race from Indianapolis, and Miss Julia Hoerner, in their trial for the Lahm cup, is today believed to be sailing over eastern Kentucky before a fifteen mile wind which will carry them in the direction of South Carolina. It is the first time a woman has participated in an effort to lift the cup.

Talk to any man five minutes and he will tell you how much better business was last year.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

FARM HAND KILLS THREE OF FAMILY

Passerby Noticing Quiet of House Finds Farmer's Body Thrown Head-
first Into Cellar

QUILL LAKE, Sask., Nov. 4.—A homesteader named Dixon, passing the Thorburn homestead Wednesday afternoon, was attracted by unusual noises from the livestock. They seemed to be hungry and thirsty. Noting no apparent life around the house, he entered, when he heard the wailing of a child, seemingly beneath him. Raising the cellar trap, he was horrified to see the feet of Mr. Thorburn, who had apparently been thrown headlong down.

Thorburn had been shot at close range from behind, the bullet entering the left shoulder blade and piercing the lung. In the next cellar Dixon found a four year old boy, still partly dazed by a vicious blow on the head.

A two year old girl, hiding unharmed in the oven, was the next find. She was waiting for her mother, who, she said was in the "hole" indicating the well.

Yesterday morning the remains of Mrs. Thorburn and her mother were located in the bush some distance from the house. Mrs. Thorburn had been shot through the heart and her throat cut, while the elderly lady's throat was cut and her head badly gashed. The bodies were partly concealed with hay.

"John did it; he shot papa and hit me and I went to sleep," was the boy's version of the deed.

John Mesel has been employed by Geo. Thorburn for about six months. He is a Hungarian about 22 years, strongly built, and has a bad temper. It was only about a week ago that he chased Thorburn with a pitchfork.

The Thorburn family was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Thorburn, 41 and 30, respectively, a boy and girl, 4 and 2 years old, and Mrs. McNevin, mother of Mrs. Thorburn, 60.

Mesel Arrested
WYNYARD, Sask., Nov. 4.—Acting on information received, the local police arrested John Mesel on a charge of murder yesterday afternoon. Mesel admitted the triple murder of the Thorburn family at Quill Lake.

FOREIGN MARKETS

New York Stock
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The most active feature at the opening of the stock market was the appearance of heavy buying orders in Colorado Fuel with an advance of 1-2 to 3-4 over yesterday's close. Union Pacific declined more than a point on the announcement of the proposed new stock issue.

11 a. m.—Amalgamated was active, ranging above 89. Smelting advanced over a point, crossing 100. Union Pacific, Reading and Pennsylvania shaded off.

Government bonds unchanged; others irregular.

Noon—Trading in the late forenoon and early afternoon was influenced entirely by freely circulated reports that arrangements for placing United States Steel common on the market of the Paris house had been successfully completed. Missouri Pacific held strong, advancing more than one point. Le Clede Gas, Rock Island and a number of specialties were strong. The leading railroad issues were heavy.

2 p. m.—The upward movement in Steel common continued during the afternoon, carrying the stock to 93. Amalgamated Copper was active.

The stock market closed strong.

NOTORIOUS P. CROWE LEAVES MILWAUKEE

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 4.—Pat Crowe, whose record as a desperado is known throughout the west, was picked up in Milwaukee by Detective John Sullivan on the charge of begging drinks from west side saloon-keepers. After a talk with Chief of Police John T. Janssen, Crowe was allowed to leave town. Crowe's most notorious exploit was his alleged complicity in the kidnaping of Eddie Cuddey in Omaha. He was acquitted of the charge. Since then he has posed as a reformer, but his falls from grace have been numerous.

JEFFREY SECURES $133,000 DAMAGES

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 4.—The jury which heard the evidence in the suit of Thomas B. Jeffrey against the Chicago & Milwaukee Electric railway company and the receivers of the company, returned a verdict Wednesday night, giving Jeffrey damages against the railway company to the amount of $133,000.

Jeffrey had demanded $2,000,000 as the value of land taken by the company as the right of way for its main line.

JANESVILLE HAS A NEW CANDIDATE

CAR TURNS TURTLE; SIXTY-EIGHT HURT

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 4.—Sixty-eight persons were injured, three probably fatally, today when a crowded car turned on its side following a thrilling coast down the long hill.

The motorman lost control at the summit of the hill.

A large percentage of the injured were young women.

The scene of the accident is one of the fashionable districts of the city and the injuries were carried into nearby residences and apartment houses, where physicians and society women worked side by side in alleviating their sufferings. A dozen persons were taken to hospitals.

ARBOGAST CASE IN HANDS OF JURY

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 4.—The case of Mrs. Arbogast, charged with the murder of her husband, was given to the jury late yesterday afternoon. Judge Orr denied the motion of acquittal made by her attorney, who followed this motion with another directing the jury to return a verdict of not guilty. This was also denied, and the case will be passed upon by the jury on its merits.

Widow Expected Freedom. Mrs. Arbogast was the most pitiful object in the court when Judge Orr denied the motion of her attorney to direct the jury to return a verdict of not guilty. The accused woman had been hoping to go home free.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaints. It cures griping, diarrhoea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first unnatural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults. It always cures.

GRAFT IN TOMBS PRISON.

Rev. J. J. Muro, formerly chaplain, who makes charge, and the Tombs prison.

NEW YORK.—"The New York Tombs Inside and Out," written by John Josiah Munro, pastor of the Bushwick Reformed church, Brooklyn, and former chaplain of the Tombs, came from the printery recently. It takes the reader as far "out" from Franklin and Center street as Fourteenth, where Tammany Hall is. The "Alpha" of the commentary follows:

"No prison on the continent has such an unsavory reputation as a corrupt grafting place as the Tombs. This has been especially true since city politics have decreed it to be in charge of the House of Grifters on Fourteenth street."

The "Omega," after many illustration of the meaning of "graft" reads: "It is the bane of our city that Tammany Hall has become the horse leech that cries 'Give, give,' and is never satisfied."

Other portions of the work describing the "inside" of the prison deal with the food which "frequently the dogs would not eat; the 'shyster lawyers,' and 'abuse of unfortunates' and the monthly coming of the grand jury, when 'everything is put in spick and span order and the warden in person shows them that discipline is at the highest pitch.

TAFT PREFERS A WHITE STEAMER

The preference of President Taft for the White Steamer is indicated by the following telegram:

"Taft, Texas, Oct. 23rd., 1909.

"Mr. Urquhart,

"The White Company,

"Chicago, Ill.

"Judge C. W. Raymond's forty horse power White Steamer carried President Taft through Taft Ranch last night to his train for Washington. Upon leaving the car the President said: 'It is like getting back home to ride in this car. This is the car I use at the White House in Washington.'"

Insist on getting what they ask for. "Just as Good" will not suffice, as substitution is the annihilation of confidence. When the most discriminating order beer for their luncheon, it is always

Gund's Peerless Beer.

"The beer that makes the world smile with you."

Men of well-balanced minds and keen perceptions are aware that they must eat and drink right in order to restore within themselves the continuous nervous and organic waste of body and mind. Medical science knows of nothing that accomplishes this as well as a pure barley malt and hop brew. Peerless is a favorite and ideal home beer. Sold everywhere. Order a case today if you want something better than the average brew.
